Greetings from the Gulf

Welcome to the beautiful Mississippi Gulf Coast! We're glad you came and sure you'll find plenty to do. Our coastal area encompasses charming waterfront towns, sleepy villages, bustling cities and pristine landscapes. Our prime location on the Gulf of Mexico has shaped our destiny and beckons to visitors to come and enjoy. The area's history goes back 300-plus years and yet the space age is alive and well within our borders.

Whatever you're looking for, you'll find it here. That may include salt water and fresh water fishing, boating, swimming, beach combing, a trip to Ship Island, playing golf, shopping, visiting art museums and historical sites, and lots of dining at our fabulous array of restaurants.

We invite you to use this guide to locate all the many possibilities to make your visit memorable.

Restaurants

On the Mississippi Gulf Coast dining is truly a pleasure and long standing tradition. The area is known for its extensive array of cuisine. But it's not just the long list of places to dine; it's all about the quality and variety. We have something to please all palates. Come hungry and we promise you'll leave fulfilled and with memories of outstanding meals.

Fresh seafood is a mainstay of this region. The area's rich culinary history is a gumbo of contributions from the many cultures. Parts of the Gulf Coast were settled by the French more than 300 years ago. Their cuisine melded with Native Americans and then the Spanish when they arrived. As people from Italy, Ireland, the Balkans, Vietnam, Central and South America and other places came to these shores, their food became part of the delicious mix that is now Mississippi Gulf Coast dining. A part of the dining scene is most definitely Cajun and Creole dishes that are popular with visitors.

In addition to the endless variety of dishes, there is a variety of ambiance and prices. There are white tablecloth restaurants as well as beach-side, wear-your-flip-flops kind of casual places and everything in between. The dining atmosphere is warm and welcoming and the food satisfying.

Peruse the restaurant section and enjoy the many dining experiences.

The Mississippi Hospitality & Restaurant Association is the only trade association in the state that exists solely for the purposes of helping you become successful in the food & beverage industry.

We have a menu of training programs, many of which are free of charge to our members. Our core of endorsed services is sure to bring more money to your bottom line. From credit card processing and music licensing to health insurance and workers compensation insurance, our programs and services will bring more money to your bottom line.

To add benefit, your industry is represented by a team of government affairs experts that is dedicated to protecting you from harmful legislation while promoting legislation that will benefit the industry. We estimate that our government affairs victories have saved the average restaurant over $10,000 over the past 4 years.

Attractions

When it comes to attractions and activities, the Mississippi Gulf Coast is a destination for all seasons and all ages. There are events such as Cruisin' the Coast, the Peter Anderson Arts & Crafts Festival and Christmas on the Water. Throughout the year there are activities for those who want to be active as well as those looking for more leisurely pursuits. Come see us any time of the year and find plenty to do.

Being coastal gives us many options, including the sand beach and its rentals, deep sea fishing, Ship Island Excursions, the Biloxi Shrimping Tour, and cruises on two beautiful Biloxi Schooners.

There are eco tours, river and marsh tours, marinas and water parks providing other types of water activities. Learning is fun at interactive places such as Infinity Space Center, the Center for Marine Education and Research and the Lynn Meadows Discovery Center — Mississippi's first children's museum.

Art and culture also abound through galleries and museums, including the Walter Anderson Art Museum, the Ohr-O'Keefe Art Museum, the Scranton Nature Museum and the Mardi Gras Museum.

Soak up some history with the Biloxi Tour Train, Beauvoir, the Maritime and Seafood Industry Museum and the West End Hose Co.

Enjoy exploring the many offerings of the Mississippi Gulf Coast!

Casinos

There's always plenty of action at the Mississippi Gulf Coast's world-class casinos. The 24-hour-a-day excitement includes table games, live poker and all the latest slot machines. Players can choose from a range of denominations beginning with pennies and progressing upward.

Adding to the fun are slot and poker tournaments, special promotions, drawings and give away items. Join casino players' clubs to receive extra benefits.

However, these casinos are not just about gaming. There are fabulous buffets along with casual and fine dining featuring renowned chefs. There are luxurious hotels with all the amenities, including amazing spas intent on pampering guests and beautiful swimming pools for fun in the sun.

Entertainment at Coast casinos is second to none. There are extravagant productions, big-name headliners, small lounge acts featuring local and regional performers.

Talent abounds. Enjoy!

Golf Courses

If golf is your game, look no further than the Mississippi Gulf Coast to fulfill all of your golfing dreams. Unlike other parts of the country, golf on the Gulf Coast is a year-round, short-sleeved game thanks to our temperate climate. The Gulf Coast is a golfers paradise with many unique golf courses from Bay St. Louis to Pascagoula.

While visiting the Coast, choose from golf courses designed by legendary players like Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Mark

McCumber, Davis Love III, and Jerry Pate. Or by world-class course designers like Earl Stone, Donald Ross and Tom Fazio who have created over 300 holes that are set-up to challenge the beginner or even the touring pros!

With so many golf courses to choose from, there is something for every skill and every budget. Grab your friends, make a tee time and start making birdies and memories on some of the most scenic golf holes in America.

Shopping

The Mississippi Gulf Coast is a wonderland for shopping. Shoppers wanting to while away a few hours browsing, antiquing, or doing some serious shopping will not be disappointed.

There are souvenir shops where visitors can find kitschy things for the folks back home. There are museum and art gallery shops with memorable keepsakes and hobby and craft shops for a personal touch. For original art, the art galleries have the works of local and regional artists available.

Locally-owned dress, shoe, jewelry and specialty shops abound along with major department stores.

There's even a factory outlet center, Gulfport Premium Outlets, where the latest fashions as well as bargains reign.

Shop in quaint centers such as Anchor Square, Sazerac Square and Rue Magnolia with their eclectic mixes. Or enjoy strolling tree-lined downtown areas such as downtown Ocean Springs and Old Town Bay St. Louis. National brands are available at inviting centers and malls such as The Promenade, Crossroads, Edgewater Mall and Lakeview Village & Indian Plaza.

Whatever your preference, you'll find it in the Coast's wide selection of shopping options.

Nightlife

There's no shortage of activities when the sun goes down on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Nightlife shifts into overdrive after dark with special events, heartpounding music and dancing. All across the area there are a variety of bars, pubs, lounges and night clubs for your enjoyment.

Many of these places feature local, regional and national musical acts. There are large venues and small cozy places, along with fun spots where customers get into the act with karaoke and trivia games. If you feel like dancing, there are nightspots where you can dance the night away. Some of the larger hotels also have pool-side bars.

Food is not forgotten as some bars and pubs serve appetizers and other fare. Specialty drinks, traditional bar drinks, wine, beer and all your favorite beverages are always available to top off the night.

So, go ahead. Unleash your inner party animal and have fun at any number of nightly, not-to-be missed venues where anything can - and often does - happen.
